The household of _____ names

1. We promise to become more conscious of people in our family, neighborhood, parish, and the wider society and to treat them with kindness and respect.
2. Once a week we will try to eat one meal together at home, free of electronic distractions; we will talk with and listen to one another, try to cook together, linger for a while at the table, and clean up together.
3. We promise to make being present and active in Sunday Mass a priority.
4. We promise to contribute some of our time as a family serving the needs of the parish.
5. We will encourage each other to pray daily, and every night before bed we will offer one another a simple blessing such as “Good night, God bless you, and I love you.”

2. We promise to offer solid preaching that explains the Scriptures in ordinary language and relates it to our everyday lives.
3. We promise to provide occasional adult programs to help you connect your faith and church traditions with everyday life.
4. We promise to help you find ways to serve the community.
5. If you call us for help, we will do everything possible to provide it; if you call with a question, we will answer promptly; and if you ask for prayer, we will offer it immediately.
